

SMASH ULTIMATE STAGE LIST

Starter Stages:

Small Battlefield

Smashville

Town & City

Battlefield

Pokémon Stadium 2

Counterpick Stages:

Kalos

Final Destination

Hollow Bastion

- If both teams do not have the DLC for Hollow Bastion, it will be replaced by Yoshi's Story.
- When Final Destination is decided to be the stage, the omega version of Battlefield may be used instead if either player requests it.

Step 1:

Away Team announces their player/gamertag (not character). Home team bans 1 starter stage (on first set). For second (and third if needed) set, the winning team of the previous set will ban first.

Step 2:

Away team bans 2 starter stages

Step 3:

Home team picks stage to play on.

Step 4:

Select character and the stage that was picked and then go to the arena.

Note: If the team that didn't have to announce the gamertag is using a generic school account, it would be nice to know which student is playing from the roster.

Second and Third Match

Step 1a:

Winning team announces character and strikes 3 stages. Counterpick stages are now eligible.

Special note: If the team picks Hollow Bastion and the other team doesn't have it, they need to select random and the game will go to Hollow Bastion.

Step 2a:

Losing team picks a stage. Player can pick a stage they previously won on. (This would only happen in a 3rd game situation).

Sets 1 & 2 = 3 points ea. | Sets 3 & 4 = 4 points ea | Set 5 = 5 points.
